TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House Membership

Representative Hubert Vo

Biographical Information

State Representative Hubert Vo, who is beginning his first term in the Texas Legislature, is a first generation Vietnamese American and the first Vietnamese American to be elected to the Texas House of Representatives. He represents District 149 in southwest Houston. The district includes a large portion of Alief, parts of west Houston and one precinct in Katy.

Hubert Vo, a successful businessman, has been a member of the Alief community for over 20 years. He serves on the board of the Alief YMCA and is a council member on the Alief Super Neighborhood. He is an active member of the community, who strives to provide opportunities to others, as he was once provided, and help better the community as a whole.

Hubert grew up in South Vietnam. After graduating from a French High School, he attended college for a year before Saigon fell to the communists. With the fall of Saigon in 1975, Hubert and his family came as refugees to the US. After living in Lubbock, Texas and attending Texas Tech, Mr. Vo and his family moved, in 1977, to Houston where he attended the University of Houston during the day and worked at Hughes Tool Company as a machinist at night. In 1983, he achieved his dream of a college education and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Hubert Vo has had a vast array of work experiences. They range from being a busboy, cook, salesperson, convenience store clerk, steel worker, business owner, realtor and now a successful entrepreneur and real estate developer. In addition, Hubert speaks four languages - Spanish, French, Vietnamese, and English.

Hubert and his wife Kathy have been married for over 20 years. He is a dedicated husband and a father of three.

Mr. Vo is a member of the Houston Association of Realtors, Houston Association of Builders, Vietnamese Chamber of Commerce, and the Houston Apartment Association.

Hubert Vo was elected by a coalition of voters from every community and enjoys support across the district. He is a tireless advocate for education, health care, economic development and the people of District 149.
